Deborah Sacks Mintz

Deborah Sacks Mintz is an educator, practitioner, and facilitator of Jewish communal music, supporting communities and individuals who seek to deepen their practice of empowered song and connective prayer. As a performer and composer, Deborah brings her passion for community-building to her artistic partnerships; in addition to collaborating on over two dozen albums with a diverse array of voices in the Jewish soundscape, Deborah released her debut album of original spiritual music, The Narrow and the Expanse, in 2020.

Beloved ongoing projects include Joey Weisenberg's Hadar Ensemble, New Moon Rising with Chava Mirel and Elana Arian, and R' Josh Warshawsky's Chaverai Nevarech. A candidate for rabbinic ordination, Deborah serves the Rising Song Institute as an artist, consultant, and teacher, and will be joining the Hadar Institute's faculty as Director of Tefillah and Music this summer. Rabbi Gordon Tucker

Vice Chancellor for Religious Life and Engagement

As vice chancellor for Religious Life and Engagement, Rabbi Gordon Tucker focuses on enhancing Jewish life at JTS, enriching our study of Judaism with the joy and deep understanding that only lived experience can provide. A leading scholar and interpreter of Conservative Judaism, he also articulates the enduring power of JTS's compelling approach to Jewish law and Jewish life, while strengthening JTS's religious leadership through partnerships with organizations in the Conservative Movement and beyond.

Rabbi Tucker's current role brings him back to JTS, where he served as dean of The Rabbinical School from 1984 to 1992 and as assistant professor of Jewish Thought from 1979 to 1994. He was ordained at JTS in 1975 after receiving his A.B. at Harvard College. He also earned a PhD in Philosophy from Princeton University.
