

Disability Advocacy Shabbat

Join us on February 19th to honor people with disabilities in our community, on Jewish Disability Advocacy Month

Dr. Cheryl Tierney is a developmental pediatrician with a passion for disability advocacy. She cares and advocates for children with special healthcare needs and autism spectrum disorder. Dr. Tierney sits on the Advocacy committee of the Society for Developmental and Behavioral Pediatrics, and will speak to us about her latest campaigns for children with disabilities.